

An Explanation by the Mother

Q. Mother, I am most eager to know what self-sabotaging behaviors within us need to be changed. Can you tell me, please?

A. The financial collapse can be eliminated by getting rid of lack and poverty consciousness. You must see your vastness as a being spanning all of existence and all abundance being an ever-flowing stream that moves through you.

Q. And the other, smaller issue?

A. Time no longer exists, thus everyone is only a moment old and yet you still think of the burdens of your past as actually shaping the moment. Furthermore, although there are such things as levels of development and stages, age has become irrelevant and life must be lived as such.

Q. In what way can these two 'flaws' in perception become assets?

A. You will personally benefit from 'youthening' and gaining abundance.

Q. Oh, yes, of course. Now, what about the big one?

A. That represents a governmental collapse.

Q. How can that be prevented?

A. By the key players, the masters of the Earth, living from their largest identities.

Q. But having lost our ego identities, many of the masters in my classes do this. Are we missing something?

A. Then why do you at times see your environment as influencing you, rather than seeing your body as the center point of your influence that molds and shapes your cosmos?

Q. Yes, Mother, I understand. I am really puzzled, however, by the scene in Britain I witnessed. Could you explain, please? Is it something that could happen, these assassinations?

A. As you know, it is in the physical where change must originate; therefore it is you who has to understand what must be done ... what must be written in The Book of the One Life.

Q. If it pertains to The Book of the One Life, it must have to do with the life of the Mother.

A. Yes, go on ...

Q. Are there some of the Expressions of Mother - Her feminine aspects - that are not at Mother's present level of light? If this is the case - after all, they were made when Mother had less understanding of Her own Being - they would be sabotaging Her current high levels. This could be the case of the Goddesses already absorbed and of ones yet to merge.

A. Very well done. So what is the solution?

Q. To write in The Book of the One Life that all of Mother's pieces reflect Her current level of light, love and awareness at every moment?

A. Yes, I will do that.

Q. Just to make sure I haven't missed anything, the wolves in the vision ... wolves usually mean stealth ... was it to indicate the sabotaging was being planned in stealth?

A. Exactly.

Q. Mother, I would like to understand more about the Mayan heads for the Irish masters. I feel there is much more to be understood.

A. Not yet.

Q. Then what about the other sacred objects for the Order of the White Dove? Can I know anything about them yet? They seem much older than the Mayan heads.

A. Those who are on Earth's old linear time would say the Mayan objects are a little less than a thousand years old. The objects for each individual master within the Order are of the same age. Two of the other objects are nearly double that age and one is 104 years old.

Q. Toltec Naguals prepared the Mayan objects for the return of the sacred body of White Magic guarded by the Order in Ireland. What is the connection, other than the passing of the mantle of authority to the Naguals there?

A. The Irish masters and the Maya that lived within a specific region both came through time tunnels from Egypt¹. Hence the skull formation that resembles ones found in Egyptian tombs from around the time of Queen Nefertiti.

Q. What about the objects for the Order of the White Dove? Where did they come from and what is the connection?

A. There were thirteen tribes on this continent of North America that had a most sacred tale to pass on through their oral traditions from wisdom-keeper to wisdom-keeper. That tale preserved the knowledge of this time when mighty transformations for all would originate on this continent ... when the gates of heaven would be flung open² and the Earth would ascend ... when the Order of the White Dove would bring ancient wisdom and magic back. Later, the wisdom was lost among most tribes as they were displaced and spiritual leaders killed before passing on the knowledge.

Q. Are these from some of those tribes?

A. It came from two of them. One is the Upik tribe from St. Lawrence Island, one of the Aleutian Islands. The Nootka chief of about a hundred years ago was one of the last to keep the knowledge. He knew that one day you would come for his staff.

Q. But who are these objects for?

A. Let me answer you with a riddle.
